Whereas, God in his wisdom, did call to his last and great reward, the Honorable J. M. West of Houston, Texas; a true friend, a great humanitarian and a successful business man, and last but not least, a loyal son of Texas;

Whereas, This son of our great State did rise from an humble beginning to the height of wealth and influence, solely by his own efforts; and

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, First Called Session of the 47th Legislature, That while we bow in submission to the will of God, we do deplore and regret the passing of this great and good man. His life and deeds should be an inspiration to the coming generation in this State; and

Be It Further Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved wife and family our sincere sympathy in this, their hour of grief, and point them for consolation to the good, and generous and loyal deeds of their loved one; and

Be It Further Resolved, That when we adjourn today we do so in honor of our fellow Texan, J. M. West, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to Mrs. J. M. West at Houston, Texas, and that a page of the House Journal be set aside in memory of this loyal son.
